DISTANCE LEARNING

Success

With our first quarter behind us, we are positive that distance learning at Ka 'Umeke Kā'eo has been a success! Our haumāna and 'ohana have shown that they are willing and able to rise to the challenge that distance learning has been. We are impressed with the effort and hard work that has been put in to this new way of learning from our 'ohana and our kumu. Our haumāna are present and engaging with their papa and it shows. Mahalo for all the hard work and perseverance, it has made all the difference.

ATTENDANCE

It Matters!

You can ensure that your keiki thrives in kula by building a habit of good attendance. For haumāna, being in papa on time every day is important. This helps our keiki feel better about kula and themselves, and good attendance will help them do well in kula now and in the future. We know some absences are unavoidable so if your keiki is going to be absent please contact our ke'ena at 933-3482 or 961-0470.

Welcoming art submissions for our community 'Ama'ama Bandana Design collaboration. Participants are invited to submit their interpretations of 'Ama'ama, or Hawaiian Mullet, through a chosen media. Finding inspiration from and through Waiuli, your 'Ama'ama should not only say something about you as an individual, but also what it means to be a part of the community. All 'Ama'ama entries must be submitted to waiulifest@huihooleimaluo.com and will be included in the community 'Ama'ama Bandana Design that will be released in 2021. Each participant will receive a bandana for their artistic contribution as well as a special art kit to continue nurturing the artist within.
