16TH ANNUAL VIRTUAL KAHIAU AUCTION GALA

Parker School, Kohala

Join Parker School for their 16th annual Kahiau auction gala on Saturday, February 20 from the comfort of your own home. Kahiau, which means to give generously from the heart, is the school's primary source of financial aid for their students, which impacts nearly 50% of Parker students and families. This condensed virtual event is free to attend and will feature an alumni speaker, student performances, a live and silent online auction, and raise the paddle.

BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES

"Meeting Your Listening Brain and How to Be Around Others that Think Differently"

Ku'ikahi Mediation Center is offering this informal and educational session held on Thursday, February 18th, from 12pm to 1pm. Catherine Lampton, PhD will be facilitating this Brown Bag Lunch series. It is a free talk via Zoom. Visit the Ku'ikahi Mediation Center's website to register or go to <https://freebrownbagtalk.eventbrite.com> Catherine said "Our brains have tremendous neurological power to manage and control what we listen to and how we automatically interact in conversations." In this Brown Bag Lunch talk, learn why these neurons exist, how they operate, and how you can gain some control of the process to communicate more effectively—especially with those who think differently than you do.

MA KE KULA ENROLLMENT

New Haumāna

Ka 'Umeke Kā'eo provides a well-rounded academic program as a culturally based indigenous Hawaiian Language Immersion School. Our school prepares students to participate in and contribute to the local and larger communities. We provide experiential-based Hawaiian learning environments in partnership with our haumāna and 'ohana. We are currently accepting applications for the 2021-2022 school year. Our next orientation for new haumāna will be held virtually via Zoom. On March 2nd at 4:30p.m. Interested 'ohana will need to call our Hale Lamalama office (933-3482) to RSVP and to receive the zoom link. Mahalo!

MA KE KULA DISTANCE LEARNING

Hua 'ōlelo

With our island of Hawai'i in the yellow zone, change is in the air at Ka 'Umeke Kā'eo. Here is some vocabulary to help you understand the different types of learning that may be happening. Distance Learning

Involves teachers working with students from different physical locations. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous based on student's needs. You'll likely rely on digital forms of communication such as messaging apps, video calls, and discussion boards. Distance learning includes the use of digital and/or printed materials.

Online Learning

Includes content that is delivered and accessed online. This may involve recorded videos, ebooks, etc.

Face-to-Face Learning

Involves delivering content in-person. If technology is used, it would be purposefully integrated with educational technology and digital lessons.

Hybrid/Blended Learning

Involves using a variety of instructional resources and teaching methods in order to deliver content in-person and via distance learning.

Asynchronous Learning

Asynchronous learning occurs through online collaboration tools without real-time interaction such as discussion boards and blogs. There is no real-time interaction.

Synchronous Learning

Synchronous learning occurs through online collaboration tools that happen in real-time such as Google Meet, Cisco Webex, and Zoom. Synchronous learning refers to a learning event in which a group of participants is engaged in learning at the same time.
